

E-waste management in Tajikistan: current situation and defining next steps

 : 18 6 2024

-  : Conference
-  : Dushanbe, Tajikistan
-  : 19 6 2024 to 20 6 2024
-  : 2 Days
-  : Environment, , Chemicals and Waste Management, , Environmental Governance and Law
-  : <https://www.scycle.info/>
-  : US$0.00
-  email: elise.vermeersch@unitar.org
-  : Cooperation for Sustainable Development Center

The Forum was organized in the framework of the project "National Monitoring of Electronic Waste: Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan, Tajikistan, Kyrgyzstan".

The goal of the National Forum was to create a platform for capacity building and strengthened stakeholder engagement, facilitate the exchange of international and regional best practices, and contribute to the development of e-waste management policies in Uzbekistan.

Session 1: E-waste: challenges and opportunities;

Session 2: International experience in e-waste management;

Session 3: E-waste in Uzbekistan: statistics, methods of handling and current problems;

Session 4: E-waste recycling projections - why it is important;

Session 5: Further development of e-waste management system in Uzbekistan;

Session 6: Implementation of the EPR system for e-waste.

State authorities;

International experts in e-waste management;

Producers and suppliers of electronic and electrical equipment;

Waste management companies;

Industrial enterprises, legal entities generating waste electronic and electrical equipment;

Service centers for electronic and electrical equipment;

NGOs, universities and research institutes.